“ Keith was an amazing person. Everyone was his friend. He was always so happy and uplifting even when his own circumstances were not the greatest. He pushed forward and tried to crush every obstacle in his way. He was very humble and grateful for what he had. Such a pure soul. Keith may you rest in peace. You will be missed immensely and thought of often.

“ What can I say I met Keith through my wonderful friend Shelley Resnick, he was always so helpful and friendly.
I'm want to send my deepest condolences to Keith's family.
I'm truly sorry for your lost,
I know Keith had some demons to deal with. But it never changed who he was which was a kind loving hearted man. He would give the shirt off his back if you needed it.
May he fly high with the angels above and rest peacefully.
You are loved and will be missed deeply Keith

“ Awwwww thank you for your kindness Ms Sandy. Keith was quite fond of you also. Thank you for always being there to drive Keith whenever he needed a ride to or from my home. You were a good friend to Keith and I'll always keep you and yours in my prayers.

Shelley - April 22 at 10:50 PM

“ Awe Ms Shelley I love you too thank you for including me in Keith journey to heaven.

“ I would like to offer my condolences to, both, my sister, Shelley, and the Joyce family on the loss of their loved one. I never met Keith in person. It was only through Face Time that I was able to see “snippets” of the loving relationship that Shelley and Keith had formed. It was plain to see the love they shared for one another. While it hurts me to witness my sister in pain and missing you, Keith, it does bring me comfort knowing that you can, finally, stop fighting. You are Home, now, wrapped up in the comfort and love of God's arms. Btw, thank you for taking my sister's hand and leading her on the road to recovery. I know she will continue this journey in honor of your love. Rest In Peace, Cheryl

“ I remember the very 1st time I met Keith, I needed my lawn mowed and I lived across from the park so I put out a sign that said 30$ to mow my yard today. A few minutes later there was a knock at my door, it was Keith. He was always so helpful to anyone that needed anything. It made him shine to help others. That's the kind of person he was. Rest Peacefully Dear Friend I miss you bunches already

Shelley Resnick - April 19 at 09:58 PM

“ I knew Keith in another life but it doesn't change the impact he had; for me it was life changing. I met the man who would become my husband because of Keith. I have no idea if he even realized how many lives he touched. I have so many memories of this man; laughing until we cried and talking into the wee hours of the night about anything and everything.... His loss is tragic. No one was a stranger and everyone was a friend; all he ever wanted was for everyone to be happy. To know him was to love him and this is just devastating. Keith is no longer suffering with his demons but the family he left behind is struggling and my hope for acceptance and the ability to find peace in this difficult time goes with them. RIP my friend.
