Marsha Yvonne Anderson, 49, of Waukegan, passed away on December 13, 2016 surrounded by her loving family. Marsha was born February 27, 1967, in Libertad, Corozal, Belize CA to Kathleen & Roy Meggs.

Marsha was the kind of mom any child would want, always fun, outgoing, and always there for when in need. She had a smile that would light up a room and a heart pure as gold. “ Everyone keeps asking why u the only person we called mrs. Well my mom told us to and that is the way we were raised. Mrs Marsha my mom will surely miss u especially when u go for a visit back home in libertad. I remember when u use to ride your bike even drove your explorer to our house. We will use to have a chair specially for u and mom to sit on as u guys will eat mango, guava, ideal from ms codd or mrs bib and talk and give jokes for long especially in Sundays. You were and will always be my mother's best friend. You always would say, "Jean I like being out this side nice river breeze and view I don't get this back there where I live". (The view was the cars pass by on the main road). Hearing your laughter will always be in my head. We will miss you so much Marsh. Sleep on our beautiful angel

To the Meggs, Borland, and Anderson families we send you our deepest condolences. Machi was a wonderful being. She was always pleasant and smiling. Find comfort in the fact that she was loved by many. As you lay her to rest today send her home with a bang. She would not have wanted you all to be sad. Today she flies away on golden wings. We will keep you all in prayer and ask God to give you the strength to endure. Remember Marsha for all the things she did on earth. Her kindness and humbleness are surely to be highlighted. She was gone too soon, but we can continue the works she started. She was an act of love! May Marsha R.I.P. Sleep on our beautiful neighbor.
